Who are we? Worldwide Cancer Research is a small charity with immense ambition - to see a day where no life is cut short by cancer. To bring that day closer the charity is growing.

What do we do? We find and fund bold ideas at the start of the cancer research journey all over the world. Kick-starting the life-saving advances of the future by sowing the seeds of new discoveries today. Funding brand new ideas and supporting researchers who ask big, challenging, new questions about how cancer works and how we can control it.

Being a small charity with currently 35 employees allows us to be open, honest and personal with our supporters. Everyone who works for this charity plays a significant role - without them we wouldn't exist. If you want to speak to the CEO, you can. If you want to speak to the research team, you can. If you want to share your story, there will always be someone to listen.

To help bring forward the day when no life is cut short by cancer, we are looking for a Supporter Services Executive to support the delivery of our Supporter Experience strategy. Is that you?

Key information about the role

Your role will be to maximise fundraising income and supporter engagement for Worldwide Cancer Research by providing excellent stewardship and fundraising support, account management and relationship building through a range of methods, such as inbound/outbound calling, email and live chat for a range of supporters that are fundraising for us including individual and team events or as part of an organisation.

If you have one year's recent experience in a similar role, managing calls, work towards achieving financial and non-financial KPIs, are an excellent communicator, self-motivated, empathetic and able to stay calm under pressure this is the role for you!

So if you're up for the challenge and are excited about becoming part of Team Worldwide, we want to hear from you!
